MARTIN

Martin rilegge il capitonné in una chiave contemporanea. Il ritmo delle sedute si inserisce in una struttura essenziale e squadrata, completata da una base metallica che rafforza il carattere minimalista del progetto.

Martin reinterprets the capitonné motif through a distinctly contemporary lens. The rhythmic pattern of the seat contrasts with the rigour of the structure, defined by squared volumes and clean lines. A metal base completes the design with a minimalist and modern accent.

ST104-ST147

Linee nette e proporzioni generose caratterizzano questa famiglia di sedute composta da poltrona e divano. Il profilo continuo del bracciolo accompagna la struttura e ne definisce il segno, mentre i cuscini in appoggio alleggeriscono l'insieme.

Clean lines and generous proportions characterise this seating family, composed of armchair and sofa. The continuous profile of the armrest follows the structure and defines its outline, while loose cushions visually lighten the composition.
